

Rhode Island ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

1,015 Child Care Programs in Rhode Island have already Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 51,700 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Rhode Island with $57.3 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 200,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.5 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Rhode Island:

- Providers in 100% of Rhode Island counties have received funds.
- 650 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 365 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
